

Parking Information

Metered parking is available the Arch Street garage ramp and on Main Street, Sheldon, and Arch Streets. The public cannot park in any designated municipal employee parking spaces at any time.

Only after 6:00 pm may Library guests park on the Arch Street parking deck for free.

There are a number of parking garages in close proximity to Hartford Public Library. One block east of the Hartford Public Library is the Front Street South garage; this is a pay-to-park facility and is open daily at 6 a.m.

Additional Parking at Sheldon Street/Prospect Street Parking Lot

For visitors, volunteers, interns and contracted employees:

You will likely need to pay for parking when you are visiting, working or volunteering at Hartford Public Library.

If you choose to park at the municipal lot at Sheldon and Prospect Streets, you will only be able to pay for your parking by a debit card or credit card. You will need to manually enter your license plate number as you enter and exit the lot. Your license number will be used to estimate the amount you owe for parking. You will need to pay that amount by credit or debit card in order to have the gate/bar move to allow you to leave. Please have your license plate number handy so you won't need to get out of the car to read it!

The lot is patrolled by a roving security vehicle up to 10:00 p.m. Costs in the lot are:

During the weekday:

$2.50 for the first hour
