

CT data collaborative History

2008

Identified need for public data on young children

Received start-up funding from CHEFA & Graustein Memorial Fund

CT data

2012

Launched CTData.org at a special appropriations committee meeting

2014

Hired the first Executive Director, Michelle Riordan-Nold

Updated CTData website with new visualization

Held the first statewide conference at Yale

2016

Partnered with Connecticut Racial Profiling Prohibition Project

Piloted CTData Academy

2017

Launched CTData Academy

Partnered with Trinity College and moved to the Liberal Arts Action Lab in Hartford

2018

Designated as Census State Data Center

Received 500 cities RWJF grant - Health in Hartford's Neighborhood Project

SDC
The U.S. Census Bureau's
Premier Local Partner

2019

Started Hartford Data Collaborative

Expanded CTData Academy

2020

Launched Equity in Data Community of Practice

Won a CT entrepreneur Award

Redesigned and created Interactive PSC Housing data Platform

2021

Built & Launched Desegregate CT Interactive Map

Published Aurora Women & Girls Impact on COVID Report

2022

Published "Exposing Connecticut's Eviction Crisis"

Launched CTData Strategic Planning, our social enterprise

Doubled staff since 2019

CT data Strategic Planning

Started as New Connecticut Foundation. Changed legal name to InformCT, Inc.